16 January 1951

Mr. Lawrence R. Houston
General Counsel
Law Division

Taxes

25X1A

1. Enclosed herewith is a memorandum summary of the tax law pertinent to a class of people designated "stipendaries."

2. We have been informed by a member of the New York Committee that a verbal opinion of Mr. Dulles indicated that these people would not be subject to tax. Pending your confirmation of Mr. Dulles' opinion, the memorandum is inconclusive in regard to a solution of the problem.
